

Hello darling

We believe

...your wedding is a gift. A celebration surrounded by your closest friends, family near and far, or simply the intimacy of each other's presence. However you choose to celebrate your beautiful commitment, we want to be there capturing you being you - your anxious excitement as your mom perfectly places the veil in your hair, the tears that fill your spouses eyes as you vow to be their's forever, the joy as you are pronounced husband and wife for the first time, and the quiet and frequent kisses stolen throughout the night. So be yourself. Enjoy every moment. And we'll be there to make sure you never forget the sincere and honest love experienced this day.

we're john and maura

We grew up down the block from each other, strolled to the corner ice cream shoppe on a date in fifth grade, went to prom together, and were wed September 5, 2010.

We don't have a fancy "photographic awakening" story. (There's no "for as long as I can remember" here) We studied the art of photography in high school and college -- learned in the darkroom, became purists, realized that was a far fetched dream, bought digital cameras.

We began documenting weddings together in 2008 and never thought we would be so in love with it. There's something unexpectedly addicting about seeing each unique and raw moment and capturing it the way we see it. It's beautiful, really.

We love sunny mornings in our apartment, good music, family, Chicago, coffee, bike rides, long meals on the porch, California, Jesus, garage sales.

“We were immediately drawn to Stoffer Photography based on the beautiful pictures portrayed on their website. The photographs gave off a very personal and seemingly effortless, cool impression... qualities that both Maura and John also share, and the exact kind of energy that we wanted for such a special occasion. Aside from being so talented, they are genuinely kind and comfortable to be around, which is very important on such an emotional and intimate day. Working with Maura and John for our engagement shoot and wedding was an absolutely amazing experience. They were able to capture moments that truly show the love that we share and tell the story of our big day. The photographs speak to their incredible talent and attention to detail. Their work is lovely in every sense of the word.”

“John and Maura are nothing shy of amazing. They’re not only a complete joy to work with, but they go above and beyond to make everyone feel comfortable throughout an overwhelmingly emotional and exciting day. My husband and I feel blessed to have worked with such incredible talent and to have so many lovely photos and memories to last us a lifetime. They’re simply the best. “

“My husband Mike & I loved working with John & Maura. It goes without saying that these two are crazy talented & delightfully creative, which is what drew us into working with them. We love our engagement & wedding photos, every single one. But we were even more pleased when John and Maura proved kind and warm and so (SO) easy to work with. Seriously, they’re awesome. These two made our wedding day a breeze, and even more beautiful to remember with our perfect photos.”

“Stoffer Photography was recommend to us and the moment we saw their work we knew immediately that they would be a perfect fit as our wedding photographers. As husband and wife they work flawlessly together and brought a totally stress free aura to the day. They have a gift of capturing all the best moments in the most natural way which was made obvious in all our photos. The planning process was also seamless and we would recommend the Stoffer’s to capture any important life event!”
